

Mr. Tim Gary

Assistant Director

Students, Families, & Curriculum

2001

It has been Mr. Tim's extreme privilege to work at Pasadena Christian School since the spring of 2001. He has an extensive background in Early Childhood Development and holds an Associate of Arts and Science Degree from Pasadena City College. He has also completed coursework for his Site Supervisor Certificate through Saddleback College.

Mr. Tim began his time at PCS by serving at the "Big Yellow House," our extended care program, where he was a lead staff member and the coordinator of the summer camp program. In 2004, he started working as an associate teacher on Team 6 at the preschool, supporting Room 2. Since then, he has held roles as an associate teacher, lead teacher, and team leader for the older pod. It has been his great pleasure to serve as the Room 3 Lead Teacher for more than a decade before becoming an Assistant Director of Students, Families, & Curriculum in 2018. Mr. Tim feels blessed to apply his background in child development, working with people he respects in a job he loves.

Mr. Tim has been happily married since June 2011 to Meagan Gray, an alumna of PCS who works as a Kindergarten teacher in KA on the PCS elementary campus. In addition to his roles at PCS, Mr. Tim served for twelve years, from 2007 to 2019, as the Pastor to Children and Youth at Foothills Community Church in Pasadena. Beyond Meagan, Mr. Tim is blessed to have his big sister, brother-in-law, three sisters-in-law, three beautiful nephews (Grayson, Alexander, and Kingston), an amazing extended family, and his two zany cats, Zoey and Toby.

When he's not at the preschool, Mr. Tim enjoys reading, crafting, playing the ukulele, hiking, watching movies, creating art, building puzzles, learning new things, and going to Disneyland with Meagan.

Working with children is Mr. Tim's passion, his privilege, and a blessing in his life.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." ✞ Matthew 19:14 NIV
